CLUB NOTES

STAGE SET FOR A CUP BATTLE—ROYAL

North End have maintained their average of a point a match for the season since our last Notes a fortnight ago, with drawn games in our Cup rehearsal with Bolton Wanderers and in the return game at Middlesbrough. These results have increased the total points to 28, of which 10 have been gained in 13 away games.

The team's revival after a luckless start has been maintained with a yield of 19 points from the last 15 matches, compared with only nine points from the first 13. The form in the latter period has been similar to that which kept North End in the promotion race practically throughout last season. Has it come too late ?

There is so little between the teams pursuing the leading pair, Newcastle United and Northampton Town, that there are still plenty of optimists to be found who believe we still have a chance, especially considering our comparatively comfortable programme following the next two vital matches.

These are with the two top clubs, the Tynesiders being due at Deepdale next Saturday, and the "Cobblers" meeting North End the following week. As both have conceded only 31 goals each in nearly 30 matches they are obviously hard nuts to crack. So have Norwich, and there are no lower totals in Division II.

Regrettably that in our own goals against column, 56, is the highest in the division, due in the main to as many as 35 being conceded in our first 13 League engagements. How different our situation might have been but for these lapses may be judged from the fact that only Newcastle (60), Southampton (58), Bolton (56) and Derby (56) have exceeded North End's aggregate of 50 goals.

However, if we do well in these forthcoming tests the situation will be decidedly more favourable, but at present even maximum points from the remaining seven home games and an average of a point from the outstanding seven away from home would take the final total to only 49. It is hardly a rosy prospect.

That does not apply to the F.A. Cup. In this respect our team has struck improved form at an opportune time and there was no lack of confidence among supporters about our chances in to-day's highly attractive fourth round tie with Bolton Wanderers, this being based on our strong efforts in the recent meeting.

If the second clash is as hard fought and as exciting as the first there will be no grumbles on the score of entertainment from the "full house" drawn by this all-ticket Cup-tie. When we last played the Wanderers in the Cup at Deepdale on a Saturday—January 4th, 1958 — the attendance was much smaller, 32,704.

The record Deepdale crowd for a match with Bolton was 39,553 on September 26th 1953, when the Wanderers, although a goal up in the first minute, were defeated by 3-1, this being one of the few occasions in the post-war period when they have lost on this ground. They have fared almost as well as we have at Burnden.

Including Cup-ties Bolton have won three and drawn nine of 17 matches here, and our record on the Wanderers' ground in the same period since 1946 is six wins, five draws and also five defeats. It is a case of "horses for courses" in a double sense. We hope tradition goes by default to-day !

Wanderers started in lively fashion a fortnight ago with a strong wind at their backs and moved well in scoring two well taken first half goals to one in reply. But North End, undaunted, were coming into more encouraging form as the interval approached and Dawson had bad luck with a header against an upright.

The second half was Preston's without a doubt. Godfrey hit the bar with a header comparable with that of Freddie Hill which had given Wanderers the lead, and a fine snap goal by Howard Kendall, showing both quickness of thought and action, levelled the scores.

We deserved to win on chances created but could not again beat Eddie Hopkinson, who was in excellent form. The former England keeper made several marvellous saves, but was certainly much more occupied than Alan Kelly and did more than anyone to prevent North End from forcing a victory.

OUR VISITORS—Bolton Wanderers

Welcome to Bolton Wanderers, the perennial "Trotters" and our old and valued friends going back to before the Football League was formed—and that was as long ago as 1888. The Wanderers' origin, like our own, is shrouded by the dim past but far from lost in antiquity. Like Preston again, the proud Wanderers have left an indelible mark on soccer history by their achievements.

Our first meeting goes back no fewer than 80 years, to December 12th 1885, when —significantly in view of our Cup date with them at Deepdale a fortnight hence— we were paired at Bolton in an F.A. Cup-tie, which North End won by 3-2. Our next clash, two years later, was also in the Cup, but at Deepdale.

By now the renowned "Invincibles," who were the pride of Preston for so many years, had come into being, and the Wanderers were swamped by 9-1. It was a Cup Final season for North End. In the previous round we set up the record F.A. Cup score with a 26-0 win against Hyde; in the next Everton lost 0-6!

Have some sympathy for the Wanderers—these three wins occurred during a sequence of 43 North End wins, ending with a shock defeat in the Cup Final.

The Bolton club came into being as long ago as 1874. It was formed by young men associated with Christ Church Sunday School and known as "Christ Church" until 1877. The Wanderers were one of six Lancashire clubs, including North End, who were among the 12 founder members of the Football League.

Although the Wanderers have never been higher than third in the Championship, they had the satisfaction, on being relegated last April, of having been continuously in the First Division since 1935, when they scored 96 goals in a great promotion season, and they have won the F.A. Cup four times in seven appearances. They were the winners in the first Cup Final at Wembley, in 1923.

FOOTBALL SECTION

MIDDLESBROUGH 5, SUPPORTERS' CLUB 4 (Saturday, January 23rd). The "Boro" fielded a very strong and experienced side which leapt into a commanding 4-1 lead by half time after George Camsell had kicked off for the Supporters. Although Boro' increased their lead to 5-1 soon after the restart the Supporters rallied well in reducing the score to 5-4 and generally gave an excellent display. Team: Redhead (W.), Stangroom, Ollerton, Hill, Wilson, Dimmock, Tighe, Newsham, Langton, Christopher (Capt.), Wildman. Tony Langton scored all four goals for the Supporters.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB 3, SCHOOL LANE CLUB 2 (Sunday, January 24th). School Lane's first defeat of the season was due largely to the hard grafting of the Supporters inside trio and a solid display by the defence. It was a very entertaining match watched by a number of supporters from the Club. Team : Vosper, Redhead (D.), Morton, Catterall, Kay (Capt.), Coupe, Gornall, Williams, Christopher, Connolly, Davy. Club Scorers : Williams, Catterall and Gornall.

TO-MORROW the Club play Continental F.C. at Cop Lane, Penwortham. The coach leaves at 10-30 a.m. prompt (kick-off 11-0 a.m.), and members wishing to travel may do so at 1/- each.
